

Saturday, August 23
10am til 6pm

The Historic Frederick (Hessian) Barracks
Located on the Campus of Maryland School for the Deaf

History chapters converge at this FREE special event, which focuses on the current Bicentennial of the War of 1812 and the Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War.

Don't miss the opportunity to see the Maryland Historical Society's Star-Spangled Replica Flag!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

10:00am

Special Opening Ceremonies with a visit from Francis Scott Key

10:30am-4pm

Star-Spangled Replica Flag exhibit and various war-related exhibits
(within Barracks and Bjorlee Museum)

Living Historians
(Barracks Parade grounds)

11am-1pm

1812 /FSK lecture & documentary*
Author Marc Leepson
MPT's "War on the Chesapeake" (2012)

1-3pm

Civil War lecture & documentary*
Frederick historian/filmmaker Chris Haugh
Panel of CW authors/historians
MPT's "Heart of the Civil War" (2012)

3pm-6pm

Span-Am. War lecture & documentary*
Historian Jason W. Smith
PBS's "Empire of Crucible"

For more information:
800-999-3613 www.visitfrederick.org

